Case Note Writing Activity

BAD EXAMPLE:

Tuesday

Johnny seemed fussy this morning. And he was late getting up. We talked about it, sal good. Johnny didn't wanna sit with his peers at breakfast so I said OKAY. He doesn't seem to like being around others. During the climbing wall he told me to go away and I left him alone so he could be on his phone. Other than all that, Johnny had an okay day I guess. He didn't bow up on anybody so I guess that's a win.

Now it's your turn. Adapt the example given above to write a correct case note responding to each issue mentioned:
